On a Saturday afternoon in A u g u s t 1806 five college students gathered in a field to discuss the spiritual needs of those living in Asian countries. When a thunderstorm arose, they took shelter on the side of a haystack and prayed. This gathering came to be called t h e H a y s t a c k P r a y e r M e e t i n g, launching the modern mission movement.

The U n i t e d C h u r c h o f C h r i s t traces its mission roots to the Haystack Prayer Meeting. Learn how the history of the Haystack event is meaningful to mission today.
